Hybrid Tea and Tea Roses

$1.00 each, $7.50 for 10, $60.00 per 100.

Admiral Ward. Flowers of velvety crimson shaded with purple.

A new introduction of vigorous growth. Very handsome.

Augustine Guinoisseau. This variety is especially valuable for cut flowers. The white flowers are very fragrant and showy.

Chateau de Clos Vougeot. A deep velvety crimson. This variety makes a strong growth and flowers freely.

Constance. (Hybrid Austrian Briar). A golden yellow rose of delightful fragrance. The buds are long and streaked with crimson. The foliage is of a shining green. A recent introduction; this is one of the finest yellows.

Duchess of Wellington. A very intense saffron yellow rose. Healthy, strong growing habit. Glossy green foliage.

Frau Karl Smid. Satiny pink, with silvery sheen.

General MacArthur. A fine garden rose, deep rosy-crimson blossoms, very fragrant and free flowering.

Gen. Superior Arnold Janssen. A new rose of rich carmine color. A vigorous plant and very floriferous.

- Geo. C. Wand. A lovely rose of orange vermillion. Few roses have a more beautiful coloring. A thrifty grower.
- Gustav Grunerwald. A carmine pink rose with a yellow center and distinctly long-pointed buds. This is a fine healthy form.
- Indiana. Deep crimson.
- Jubilee. Clear; dark red; fine variety.
- Jonkheer J. L. Mock. The finest of all pink Hybrids Teas. Described as Imperial pink, this is acknowledged as one of the best roses of recent introduction.
- Joseph Hill. Large flowers of salmon pink, tinged with copper, very fragrant. A stocky plant flowering profusely.
- Konigin Carola. Large flowers of pale satiny rose. A thrifty variety flowering freely.
- Lady Alice Stanley. The flowers vary from light pink to a deep rose and are borne on long stiff stems. A very distinct rose.
- Lady Ashtown. Deep pink blooms, large and full, very often on pendulous stems. Good variety.
- Laurent Carle. A deep lustrous red. This a remarkably showy rose with its large flowers and brilliant color.
- La France. Peachy pink; very strong.
- Lieutenant Chaure. Velvety crimson flowers. An especially fine garden variety. Vigorous grower.
- Lyon Rose. One of the showiest and most decorative varieties. Petal edges shrimp pink, center coral-red tinged with chrome-yellow at the base. The flowers are large and full.
- Maman Cochet. Carmine rose with salmon yellow.
- Miss Cynthia Forde. A fine rose of a deep showy rose pink.
- Mme. Abel Chatenay. A beautiful flower of carmine rose, tinted salmon; the petals have a silvery tinge. A very robust variety worthy of a place in every garden.
- Mme. Caroline Testout. Bright satiny rose. Free flowering. Sweetly perfumed.
- Mme. Colette Martinet. Old gold, shaded orange yellow. The golden buds are unusually distinctive and are a marked contrast to the bronzed-green foliage.
- Mme. Edouard Herriot. Known at the "Daily Mail Rose"; this rose is a prize winner. Coral red shaded with yellow and rosy scarlet; it presents one of the most charming of garden flowers.
- Mme. Jules Bouche. A fine healthy variety. Salmon white shaded clear pink. A very meritorious variety for the garden.
- Mme. Jules Grolez. Light satiny rose. Free bloomer.
- Mme. Leon Paine. The combination of colors in this rose is remarkably beautiful. Silvery white with an orange yellow center and the reverse side of petals reddish pink. A variety of strong growth.
- Mme. Segond Weber. The large rosy salmon blossoms of this rose are markedly distinctive. Growth is strong and erect.
- Mrs. Aaron Ward. This rose is uniquely described as "Indian yellow, suffused with salmon." A wonderful variety, blooming freely and of vigorous habit.
- Mrs. F. W. Vanderbilt. Flowers of a deep orange red shade. A very ornamental garden and bedding rose.
- Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt. Another creamy-white rose but with a rose center. The buds are distinctly long-pointed. Good habit.

Ophelia. Although originated in 1912, this is still a most favored rose. A rosy pink shaded with salmon. Finely shaped blooms and vigorous habit.

Prince of Bulgaria. A very charming rose with flowers of silvery pink tinted with salmon. Blooms very large and well formed.

Radiance. A rose of many colors, brilliant carmine, shaded salmon and coppery red. Healthy habit.

Souv. de Gustav Prat. A pure sulphur white rose, sometimes without the yellow shading, very floriferous and perpetual blooming.

Souv. de Pierre Notting. Tea. A very handsome rose, apricot yellow tinted with orange. A fine healthy plant of strong growth.

Souv. de Pres. Carnot. Light rose and white.

Sunburst.

Viscountess Folkestone. Light pink with a darket center. Large and fragrant flowers. An early bloomer and very free flowering.

W. R. Smith. Tea. Flowers of creamy-white flushed with bright rosy pink. Large and finely formed flowers.

Willowmere. (Rosa lutea hybrid). An Austrian rose hybrid. One of the most admired of new roses. Color a deep pink shaded yellow in the center and changing to carmine pink at the edges of petals. A very vigorous grower.
